ARIZONA MUSICFEST ANNOUNCES STAR-STUDDED 2022-2023 SEASON
FEATURING OVER 30 CONCERTS IN NORTH SCOTTSDALE WITH EXPANDED CLASSICAL LINE-UP (July 2022)

Arizona Musicfest is thrilled to announce its 2022/2023 concert season featuring beloved entertainer Marie Osmond; 14-time Grammy winner David Foster with acclaimed singer Katharine McPhee; Tony-winning star of stage and screen Jason Alexander; American music favorite Rosanne Cash; Broadway's leading lady Kelli O'Hara; celebrated artists Michael Feinstein and Jean-Yves Thibaudet; Musicfest audience favorites Big Bad Voodoo Daddy; and the Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Maestro Robert Moody; plus many more outstanding artists performing between October and April.

"Following the tremendous success of our 2021/22 concert season, Musicfest is thrilled to build upon the exciting momentum that our artists and audiences have developed over the last many years," says Allan Naplan, Arizona Musicfest's executive and producing director. "We look forward to presenting many new artists this season, as well as to welcoming back some of the exceptional performers who have illuminated our stages and delighted our patrons in years past."

Included in the season's line-up of more than 30 concerts, is the expansion of Musicfest's Festival Orchestra series, now performing concerts in both February and March.

One of the Valley's premier destinations for exceptional concert experiences and dynamic music engagement programming, in addition to performances, Musicfest also provides important music education programs, valuable opportunities for young musicians, and Music Alive!, the popular lifelong learning and creative aging series for older adults.

Mark O'Connor's music truly defies categories. From classical collaborations with Yo-Yo Ma and Renée Fleming to folk, country and Bluegrass partnerships with James Taylor, Alison Krause, Vince Gill and many others, the three-time Grammy award-winning O'Connor has become a leading proponent of a new American music idiom. For his Musicfest performance, the virtuosic O'Connor—joined by wife Maggie and son Forrest—performs beloved holiday favorites overlaid with a unique Appalachian sound. This holiday concert is certain to warm your heart.

Friday, January 6, 7:30pm

Ticket prices: $86 / $67 / $51

For more than a decade, The Modern Gentlemen wowed audiences worldwide as the four voices (The Four Seasons) alongside Rock & Roll icon, Frankie Valli. Favorites of PBS audiences, and acclaimed in performances from Las Vegas to Broadway and London to Australia, the dynamic vocal quartet celebrates the music of Doo Wop, Motown, Pop and Rock. Their signature sound blends classic hits of yesterday with a modern dapper style. “The best singers I’ve ever worked with!” – Frankie Valli

Saturday, January 14, 7:30pm

Ticket prices: $76 / $53 / $34

Swedish musical sensation Gunhild Carling is an internationally-acclaimed superstar and internet phenomenon. Her highly-anticipated Musicfest concert is a can't-miss event! Whether she's singing favorite jazz standards, playing one of her many instruments (trumpet, trombone, harmonica, oboe, harp, flute, recorder, or jazz bagpipe!) or juggling and tap dancing, Gunhild's sublime showmanship shines. Part musical extravaganza/part Vaudevillian spectacle, Carling's performance, accompanied by the Arizona Musicfest Big Band, is guaranteed to be one of the most feel-good, toe-tapping, exhilarating shows of the season!

Friday, January 20, 7:30pm

Ticket prices: $76 / $53 / $34

Three of today's award-winning singer-songwriters come together for a special evening of songs and stories. Grammy-winner Shawn Colvin's songs, including "Sunny Came Home", are slow-release works of craft that become treasured, lifetime companions for their listeners. After winning a Grammy for "Walking in Memphis," Marc Cohn solidified his place as one of this generation's most compelling singer-songwriters. Though just barely in her thirties, Texas native Sarah Jarosz has compiled a remarkable career, winning four Grammy Awards in the Americana and Folk categories.

EXPANDED 2022/2023 FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA DETAILS

Music's finest come to play! Each season, our Festival Orchestra features musicians from some of the nation's finest orchestras. This year, in a new and expanded programming format, Maestro Robert Moody will lead the exceptional ensemble in six unique concert programs over two weeks.

Wednesday, February 1, 7:30pm

Ticket prices: $96 / $72 / $49

Maestro Robert Moody leads the Festival Orchestra—comprised of musicians from the nation's finest orchestras—in Dvorak's magnificent Symphony No. 8, a work that evokes Bohemian folk melodies and revels in exuberant celebration. The concert begins with Wagner's majestic "Entry of the Gods into Valhalla" from Das Rheingold. Jonathan Okseniuk, a distinguished alumnus of Musicfest's acclaimed Young Musicians Programs is featured soloist in Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 4. First Place winner of both the national Sphinx Competition and the Music Teachers National Association Competition, Okseniuk has received considerable attention for his prodigious talent.

THE FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA
HAOCHEN ZHANG, PIANO SOLOIST
FEB 3

Friday, February 3, 7:30pm

Ticket prices: $96 / $72 / $49

In 1958, the young American pianist Van Cliburn electrified the global music scene by winning the inaugural International Tchaikovsky Competition. To claim the coveted prize, Van Cliburn performed the Russian master's Piano Concerto No. 1. For his highly anticipated Musicfest debut, Haochen Zhang (2009 Van Cliburn Competition Gold Medalist) will join the Festival Orchestra to perform this same work, a pillar of the repertory. The concert begins with Maestro Robert Moody and the Festival Orchestra performing the lyrical, optimistic Symphony No. 2 by Brahms.

THE FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA, CHORUS & SOLOISTS
HAYDN THE CREATION FEB 5

Sunday, February 5, 2pm

Ticket prices: $93 / $52

"And there was light!" Franz Josef Haydn's oratorio, The Creation, presents the radiant vision of creation found in Genesis. Featuring the Festival Orchestra, Festival Chorus and Soloists, Haydn's music explores the full spectrum of human emotions with melodic inventiveness, grandeur, and majesty. This choral masterpiece is a timely reminder that we can all live in harmony with nature.

BEN BEILMAN, SOLOIST

MAR 7

Tuesday, March 7, 7:30pm
Ticket prices: $96 / $72 / $49

Hailed as “mighty impressive” by The Washington Post, the celebrated violinist Benjamin Beilman joins the Festival Orchestra to perform Mendelssohn’s richly melodic Violin Concerto. Maestro Robert Moody begins with John Williams’s dynamic musical suite Adventures on Earth (from E.T.: The Extra-Terrestrial). The concert concludes with a piece that, while composed in 1872, holds timely relevance for today, Tchaikovsky’s Symphony No. 2. A strikingly joyful work, the music was inspired by the rich tradition of Ukrainian folk songs and dance melodies.

THE FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA
FIREBIRD & MAHLER

MAR 9

Thursday, March 9, 7:30pm
Ticket prices: $96 / $72 / $49

The concert opens with Symphony No. 4 by Gustav Mahler, inviting listeners into an exuberant drama filled with congeniality, introspection, and ultimate innocence. Maestro Robert Moody pairs this readily accessible masterwork with Igor Stravinsky’s sumptuous ballet score, The Firebird. One of the most popular of all orchestral works, the shimmering musical fairy tale dazzles in performance by the virtuosic Festival Orchestra.

U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY GLEE CLUB
